

Rules of Iftar – Ramadhan, 1433

1. Everyone is to be seated at the tables.
2. There will be no lines at the food table.
3. The servers will prepare the plates of food and drinks.
4. Volunteers will take these plates and drinks to the seated people.
5. Children 10 and under will get a smaller portion to prevent waste.
6. These children should be seated together and will be served first.
7. Each volunteer will deliver the food to everyone at one table before going to the next table.
8. The food should be served as quickly as possible to prevent long waiting by anyone.
9. The servers will serve themselves after everyone has been served and they will eat at the food table.
10. Seconds will be available after everyone has been served the first time. The servers will announce when seconds are available.
11. To receive a second helping, proceed to the food table and request the servers what you would like. Take only what you can eat.
12. If there is any food left, anyone may take it home or to their neighbors.
13. Please do not waste any food. That is contrary to Islam.
14. Each person should clean up after himself or herself and his or her children. Don't expect someone else to clean for you.
15. Everyone that comes for iftar is requested to be kind and considerate; remember that you are doing it to gain Allah's pleasure.
16. If you would like to volunteer, please talk to sister Zahidah or brother Shabir.
17. May Allah accept our fasting and good deeds, ameen.
